

The Quondam Travel Fund

The Quondam Travel Fund helps girls who have been at the school who seek to broaden their education and experience by travelling abroad either in their gap year between school and university or whilst at university.

The Grant

- The grant will not be more than 50% of the total amount which the applicant needs to raise.
- The maximum grant awarded will be £500.
- Grants will be awarded only to girls travelling abroad.
- Any girl who has attended FHS Clarence Gate and is in her second year of the Sixth form can apply.

The Application

- Preference will be given to applications involving an element of education or service to others.
- The application should include:

Details of the planned journey - destination, length, purpose of the visit and costs involved.
- One paragraph should cover:

How the applicant expects to benefit from the visit.
How the project will benefit from the work of the applicant (if relevant).
What difference winning the scholarship will make to the applicant's trip.

Applications will be considered at a committee meeting of Quondam once a year. Final applicants may be requested to attend an interview.

Document Format

- A maximum of 1,000 words. Any application in excess of this will be disqualified.
- The essay must be a new piece of work written especially for this competition.
- Format: Font - Arial; Size - 12; Line Spacing - Single
- The essay must be submitted by email to Nadia Demetriou Ladas at quondam@fhs-nw1.org.uk with the subject 'Quondam Travel Fund Entry'
