

New Headmistress of FHS Regent's Park starting in September 2022

Mrs Katharine Woodcock, Headmistress of Sydenham High School, a GDST school in South London, will be joining Francis Holland School, Regent's Park, as Headmistress at the start of the next academic year in September 2022.

10th January 2022 — Mrs Woodcock has been Headmistress of Sydenham High School since April 2017 and previously taught at Queen's College for 12 years, where she was Senior Deputy Head for her last four years. Her teaching career began at Oakham School where she taught French and Russian and was a Housemistress. She has a daughter at university and a son in the Lower Sixth.

The Chairman of the Council for Francis Holland Schools Trust, Mr Patrick Sherrington, said:

'The selection panel was unanimous in its view that Katharine was the right person to lead our school on the next phase of its journey and so we are delighted to be able to make this announcement.'

Mr Charles Fillingham, who has been Headmaster of FHS Regent's Park since January 2016, will be leaving, after seven years of first-class service, at the end of this academic year to become Executive Head of Solihull School.

The FHS Community extends its warm congratulations to Mrs Woodcock and looks forward to welcoming her in September, as well as looking forward to welcoming Mr Fillingham back as a friend of FHS in years to come.

For further information please contact:

Vanessa McKinley – Director of External Relations for Francis Holland Schools Trust on 07815 618768 or vanessa.mckinley@fhst.org.uk