

NEW DEVELOPMENTS

Berkhamsted School

NEW SIXTH FORM CENTRES

Berkhamsted School's new centre, opening in late 2023, will have different zones for silent, independent or collaborative study, and socialising.

King Alfred School's centre was opened by Old Alfredian Ian Lush OBE, CEO Imperial Health Charity and Chair of NHS Charities Together in September.

The Duke of Westminster opened Francis Holland School's new Sixth Form Centre which offers the opportunity for the 150 sixth form girls to collaborate with entrepreneurs in the community and network with those committed to changing the mindset of the next generation.

King Alfred School

Francis Holland School

EXPANDING TO INDIA

Wellington College has announced an agreement with the Unison Group to establish premium Wellington College schools in India. The schools will share the values and enduring quality of Wellington College, while combining the best of British and Indian education.

NEW BOARDING HOUSES

Charterhouse School recently welcomed former pupil The Rt Hon Jeremy Hunt MP back to the campus to officially open two new boarding houses, Northbrook and Saunderites.

TIME FOR THE ARTS

d'Overbroeck's are building a new Arts Centre in Summertown. The building includes a variety of dedicated spaces fitted to a high specification, including Textiles, Photography, Fine Art, Ceramics and Fine Art.

Sir Jon Coles visited Dunottar School, in Surrey, to officially open the new Castle Theatre and Performing Arts. The new facility offers five state-of-the-art music practice rooms, two music classrooms, a drama studio and spacious theatre with seating for up to 500.

DEEP IN HERITAGE

Bromsgrove School recently opened its new Heritage Centre, filled with the history of the school which was founded in 1553, including Captain Scott's Antarctic Expedition Sledge.

CHANGING FACES

Heads on the move

Abbey College Manchester has announced the appointment of its new Principal, Chris Randell, who commenced his new role in January 2022 as Liz Elam leaves the college after 22 exceptional years of service.

Katharine Woodcock, Headmistress of Sydenham High School, a GDST school in South London, will be joining Francis Holland School, Regent's Park, as Headmistress at the start of the next academic year in September 2022.

STEM DEVELOPMENTS

Dean Close School has opened its new 1886 Centre, a dedicated state-of-the-art learning space for mathematics, business and economics. The Centre offers newly furnished, bright classrooms, interactive white boards, and a dedicated Maths Hub for self-study.

FOR THE LOVE OF LIBRARIES

Badminton School has invested in a complete refurbishment of its Junior School library to foster a love of reading in its younger pupils. The library is now a space of calm and peacefulness and has proved very popular with pupils.