

FRANCIS HOLLAND SCHOOL
REGENT'S PARK

THE MUSIC SCHOLARS' PROGRAMME

Music is at the heart of Francis Holland. We have opportunities for all girls to explore their musical pursuits, including a variety of orchestras, choirs and ensembles. Singing is very strong in the school.

It is an exciting time to be a music scholar at Francis Holland. We develop our advanced musicians and music scholars through workshops and masterclass opportunities. Chamber Music is flourishing with girls taking part in a variety of ensembles. We offer opportunities to contribute to musical events inside and outside of school

Co-curricular Commitment

We expect a full commitment to the musical life of the school from scholars and exhibitioners. Girls take part in a number of activities including the orchestra and choir. We encourage leadership roles for scholars so they set an example to others.

Performance

Music scholars are expected to play at Open Days and other events as required. They play during Monday, Wednesday and Friday morning whole-school assemblies and at other performances, when required.

GCSE/A level Music

We hope scholars consider taking GCSE/A level Music. Public exams present the opportunity for girls to develop musicianship, engage with peers, explore music history, and develop compositional skills.

What Scholars can expect from Francis Holland Regent's Park

Scholars can expect commitment from the Music department to further their musical development by having engaging opportunities to develop in a way that balances academic and musical life. We want our scholars to feel that they are a vital part of the school and Scholars are reviewed annually to assess their progress and reward commitment.

There are ten music scholars and four music exhibitioners currently at Francis Holland.
